

Curriculum Vitae Torsten Einstmann

Family Status

Born March/31/1965 in Wunstorf (Region Hannover), married, two children

Professional Career

Since April 2009

Chief of Staff of the Federal Commissioner on Matters relating to Disabled Persons

July 2008 – March 2010

Project director “eGovernment-Strategy for Persons with Disabilities”,
Federal Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs

May 2003 – June 2008

Head of Division, Office of Parliamentary State Secretary Franz Thoennes (MP),
Federal Ministry of Health and Social Security/ Federal Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs

June 2002 – April 2003

Project director of the business development project “Hannover Project”,
Region Hannover

January 2002 – May 2002

Head of Division, Office of the Vice-district administrator of the Region Hannover

October 1999 – December 2001

Head of Division, Office of the Chief Executive Officer of the Greater Hannover Region

April 1989 – September 1999

Executive Officer in several sections of the City of Hannover and of the Hannover Region

Education

1997

Graduate in social sciences

1990 – 1997

Studies in social sciences at Leibniz University of Hannover

1987

Graduate in public administration (UAS)

Qualification for the elevated general civil service

1984 – 1987

Studies in public administration at the University of Applied Sciences for Administration and Judicature in Hannover (apprenticeship for the elevated general civil service)

1984

A level (Abitur) at Hoelty-Gymnasium Wunstorf